2 Software Configuration

Choose from the following methods to configure your APs.

Method 1: Standalone AP

To configure and manage APs separately.

Note:

- Before you start, be sure to power up and connect your devices according to the topology figure.
- A DHCP server (typically a router with DHCP function enabled) is required to assign IP addresses to the APs and clients in your local network.
- If the router you use is a Cudy mesh WiFi router, then the access point will auto work as an add-on mesh unit and share the same WiFi network name and password with the Cudy router you connect.

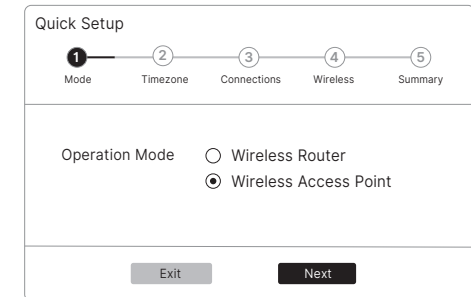

- Connect wirelessly by using the default SSID printed on the bottom label of the product.

- Launch a web browser and enter <http://cudyap.net/> in the address bar. Create a password to log in.

- Follow the step-by-step instructions to finish the Quick Setup.

Method 2: Work with a Controller

To configure and manage APs on the management web page of the main device.

The AP will be adopted into the Mesh network, and use the same Wi-Fi network name and password as the main device (Cudy Controller or Mesh Router).
