COOLER MASTER Make It Yours.

SHARKX

Cooler Master has organized the Mod World Series since 2009 and from this annual contest many amazing mods have been created. After Sneaker X – Cooler Master has also commercialized the winning mod of the 2019 edition - Shark X. This design from Thai case modder Inony is totally a piece of art.

This PC brings technology and art together in something that catches everyone's attention. No matter it is in someone's house or in a commercial environment – people will immediately notice it.

It can be configured to anyone's demand – as long as it meets the minimum requirement for motherboard and graphic card.
